

7.3.1: Evidence file: Holistic Development of Students

Going with the meaning of ‘Holistic Development of a Student’, grooming students for social, emotional, physical, mental, and intellectual growth is the main focus of the college. Fusing this term in education changes its meaning to focus on the complete development of a child's growth, not just academic advancements. The college takes efforts to improve academic development, improve physical and mental standards, development of ethics and values, technical skills, and environmental consciousness of the students. The following photographs show this evidence.

ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT

The academic development of students is achieved through a variety of Student Centric Activities. These activities are available on the following link:
